Look What We Can Do!

Synopsis

"Look What We Can Do!" is a light-hearted tale of Nolan, a little boy, and Teddy, his best friend, as they cruise around on Nolan's new power wheelchair. These two adventurers find joy and humor in the world around them, despite the new obstacles they face.

Customer Reviews

This book arrived yesterday and our three-year old has already asked to read it several times. The characters and likes/dislikes/adventures are easy for any child to relate to, which makes it even easier for children to understand those that are different from them in other ways (but still the same in so many).

My 3-year-old and 5-year-old boys love this story. The story is funny and sweet and includes exciting illustrations. This book is a great way to teach young children about individuals with spinal cord injuries and disabilities in general. I highly recommend adding this book to your child's collection!

This book is truly amazing. It is great for children with disabilities to see similarities in this book. And also wonderful for any child to see that they all enjoy doing the same things. I will definitely purchase this for more gifts in the future. It should be in every home. Well done!

My 20 month old daughter picks this book out almost every night! We both fell in love with Nolan and his story! This is a great book to add to a child's collection!

This book is awesome
