I read this devotion book with my 10 yr old granddaughter everyday before homework. It is well written with brief, meaningful thoughts and scripture relating to a young girl's life. It usually opens a topic for discussion and I feel helps to ground her in a way that adds positive approach to many of life's problems and human shortcomings. I think this book is a good resource for young girls.

I bought this for my daughter and granddaughter. I had found one for the Dad and Boys devotional at Christmas time, but not the girls. This is going to keep them close and focused on the Lord.

My 8 year old daughter is really enjoying the book and I believe it is teaching her important lessons and I love that it leads her to explore the bible herself. there are recommended scripture passages for each day. sometimes, she does it by herself but she prefers when we do it together. it's hard to keep up with daily readings, but I love this purchase.

Loved it. It got our family to start having conversations about God.

This has been read and loved already. A great gift for a young girl who is reading well.

Great book for God daughter!

We are using this devotional as a family study. It is clearly written, theologically sound and chock full of stories that are applicable to children and tweens. Each devotion begins with a story and is followed with questions that can be used as journal entries or discussion questions. And because each story is only a page in length, it is very manageable as a personal devotion. It is just long enough to grab the reader's attention without being so long as to turn them off. And because it is written in simple language, younger students should be able to enjoy it without any frustrations.

This is an amazing devtional for girls of all ages.
