Customer Reviews

When you advertise a book to contain "100 Of The Best Caves For Spelunking," the reader generally expects a list of 100 caves for spelunking. Instead, you get a ridiculous series of fill in the blanks (like hangman in varying degrees of difficulty and odd clues like: WINE CELLAR LOUNGES (cm on cloud nine) What on earth does that even mean??? I copied that exactly the way it was written and there are 100 of these types of "riddles." No actual list was given and the only cave picture included was the one on the cover. I generally don't leave negative reviews but this "book" was beyond disappointing. I use the word "book" lightly only if you consider a 14 page, 16/18-point font, double spaced series of sentences a book (3 of those 14 pages were dedicated to the table of contents and notes from the authors) leaving 11 pages for "content." I admit, I should have realized something was wrong when the dimensions of the book given were 8.5 x 11 x 0.1. Without any hesitation, I am returning this pamphlet.

I have no idea what the heck this book is supposed to be. It's a bunch of nonsense. There is no information at all about caves or spelunking. It's a waste of time and money for someone planning to use it for research.
