Washington is a writer.

We love this series. This series is my daughter's favorite.

Maddy loves this book...learning code and other activities in book along with teaching about Jesus is a plus all the way around

I bought this book because it has all 5 star ratings. I was very disappointed when I got. We've gone a week now with only 1 line about God. There is very little scripture to look up and while it has good moral lessons, it rarely talks about God. There are much better devotional books out there, especially for older kids. I want to dig much deeper with my children then this book allows. That being said, the activites are pretty cute.

Really great for the tween girls. I highly recommend this for ages 10-12. Gave this as a gift to a little girl beginning her christian walk and she loved it!

Love this devotional. Bought it for my daughter few years ago and she loved it. I decided to buy it for 2 of my nieces for Xmas.

Gave this as a gift and the parents said the child was reading it with her younger sisters and doing the study with them.

Having a daily devotional that also challenges the mind and harness writing and comprehension skills is just the blast. I bought this book for my 9yr old and she just loves it. She loves the word of God and will usually wake up most mornings to pray and study the bible by herself. This book has taken things to the next level and she just loves it. Great work!

My daughter loves this. Great activities and vignettes.
