Aging Out

Synopsis

While still a little boy, Alton Carter walked away from his violent, drug- and alcohol-riddled childhood home believing the worst life had to offer was behind him. He was sorely mistaken. After surviving a troubled foster care system and becoming the first in his family to graduate from high school -- with a college scholarship in hand no less, he found himself at age eighteen, as so many young people do on the cusp of life: scared, lonely, and all on his own. This is the story of how he aged out of the foster care system only to have his college dreams shattered, and how he found the courage to face his past and dare to take the steps to the life and family he always dreamed he would one day have.

Customer Reviews

A former police officer and the author of the award-winning novel THE BOY WHO CARRIED BRICKS, Alton Carter is director of youth ministries for the First United Methodist Church of Stillwater, Oklahoma, and a graduate of Oklahoma State University. The father of two sons -- Kelton and Colin, he loves spending time with his family, working with youngsters, and fishing. He makes his home in Stillwater, with his wife, Kristin, and his boys.

Alton Carter is a self-made miracle who had practically no opportunities to find his way out of a pit of poor parenting, neglect, and abuse. But, he managed. Alton latched onto the rare positive person whose life touched his, made it out of the pit (all the while experiencing periods of overwhelming backsliding) and emerged victorious over a childhood of unthinkable cruelty. Alton's biography is educational, inspirational, and a page turner that's tough to put down. His books should be required reading for every teen in America. Meeting Alton through his attention grabbing and touching public speaking engagements was a rare privilege.

Very pleased with our purchase.

I read Alton Carter's first book, and it was such a good book that I purchased his 2nd book, "Aging Out". This is such a great story that he wrote about his life. I would definitely recommend it to others.

I've read both of Mr. Carter's books to my 5th and 6th grade classes. He has visited our school a couple of times and the kids really enjoyed getting to know him. Knowing his story personally made his books more meaningful.

Thanks for sharing your story.

Great read and awesome guy, have the pleasure of saying he is a friend too!
