Customer Reviews

Such an excellent and exciting finale to the Romany Outcasts Series. The author kept me on the edge of my seat as secrets are unraveled and the fates of the lead characters are revealed. It is refreshing to read such an original story with rich detail and well developed characters, and keeps us riveted with the time old tale of good vs. evil- where we find ourselves rooting for the heroes and willing for good to win out against evil in a world where the lines between sides aren't simply black and white. This series does not disappoint. Highly recommended.

I thought this was a great conclusion to the series. I enjoyed the book taking place in Savannah, and how the author included the city's history into the story. While I wished Josephine and Sebastian could have spent more time together during this book, I appreciated the flashbacks to remind us of their interactions and how they felt towards and around one another. I also liked getting to explore the secondary characters and their journeys more in this one. (And also learning more about the gypsy outcast society as a whole.) Definitely recommend this series.

I was so ready to learn the outcome of this trilogy, and I wasn't disappointed! I was hooked from Book One. I loved Sebastian and Josephine and their intriguing story. Thanks, Christi J. Whitney for this amazing adventure!

This was a great ending to an exciting series! Whitney writes romantic tension in such an exciting, yet clean and innocent way. Love all of it, but I can't lie - love the romance a lot :)

Best one of the series by far! I loved how intense it was.

Wonderful book! Loved the entire series and cannot wait to see what Christi J. Whitney comes up with next!

Entertaining, full of surprises, suspense, and deep love.
