Customer Reviews

"Pimsleur programs provide plenty of positive reinforcement that will keep learners on track, and we found that Pimsleur gave us more proficiency and confidence in speaking the new language than any of the other language programs we reviewed."-- AudioFile Magazine"EXTREMELY ACCESSIBLE...each section within the lessons is short enough to hold our attention, and there is enough repetition to teach even those who consider themselves slow learners...Pimsleur [programs] are extremely thorough and easy to use -- quite lively!"-- Boston Herald"Learn French while commuting, German while jogging, Spanish (or Russian, Italian, and Japanese) while cooking all with NO WRITTEN MATERIALS!"-- New York Daily News"Designed for the ear and not the eye...the lessons provide PERFECT 30-minute bites of work."-- St Louis Post-Dispatch"Learn to habla espaÃ±ol or parlez franÃ§ais before your next trip aboard. The interactive LESSONS CHALLENGE STUDENTS to use new words in conversation instead of memorize them."-- American Way (American Airlines inflight magazine)"I tried other language programs with little success...This is the best by far!"-- Pamela A. Dr. Paul Pimsleur devoted his life to language teaching and testing and was one of the world's leading experts in applied linguistics. After years of experience and research, Dr. Pimsleur developed The Pimsleur Method based on two key principles: the Principle of Anticipation and a scientific principle of memory training that he called "Graduated Interval Recall." This Method has been applied to the many levels and languages of the Pimsleur Programs.

I've bought and studied 4 other Basic Pimsleur European language audio courses and could discern and imitate the native sounds just fine in spite of a partial hearing loss. (I only wear hearing aids sometimes, not always, but they don't help with my learning French a la Pimsleur.)But, this French! Oy vay! It's so hard to know what so many of the sounds are, which is precisely what sets French apart from other European languages. I got into an involved back-and-forth with Pimsleur customer service in a futile attempt to get the script. No way. They claim they don't even have one. My question is an incredulous, "So, how did the speakers on the CDs know what to say?"To be fair, maybe there are people without hearing loss, who are also adept at learning foreign languages and who can discern all the sounds on the Pimsleur CDs.

I bought these CDs to use in the car to help me with my French before traveling to France. The phrases I learned were very helpful. Being alone in the car allowed me to practice as many times as it took to feel comfortable enough to order at a restaurant and ask for directions. But there are some phrases that I have questions about. I sent an email to the company online and never heard back from them. That was disappointing. I paid for their product and they couldn't even respond to an email. Disappointing.

I have used Pimsleur before for Italian and I was quite pleased. The method is sound. However, I am disappointed in the logic of what is included in these lessons. I have ordered these because my husband and I are traveling to France but things on here don't include much of what we would need for survival. Saying "we would like" would be helpful things that I'd tourist needs to know. I won't be asking anyone in French if they want to eat and drink. This needs much more hotel conversation, restaurant phrases, asking information, and asking directions. If there is a suggestion to a more helpful program I would like to know.

They weren't kidding when they said "Basic"...If you've taken French before and needed a refresher this isn't for you... but if you're learning for the first time it's helpful.

This was recommended to me. I purchased it for French for my teenage son. Not realizing that it really is to help the business man or woman to communicate while on a business trip. So the lessons are to teach you things about meeting places, restaurants, hotels and such. Not what we were looking for but he still learned quick and easy from it.

LOVED these French Lessons. So easy to follow and was very helpful on my trip to Paris --- I was actually able to converse un peu in French and could understand much more on the menus than I would have without it. My only regret is that I didn't order this sooner as I would have had time to go through the whole lesson.

there are definitely strengths and weaknesses about these CDs. first of all, it does not come with any written material. If you can't see how a word is spelled, how can you memorize it efficiently? The syllabus is very restricted. There are you and I, but how about he, she and they? The strength is that they repeat themselves over and over again, so by the end, you've heard it enough times that it does start to stick. They do emphasize on the correct pronunciation, which is very helpful. I'd give it a 3 star at best.

After finishing French for Dummies, a friend encouraged me to give Pimsleur a try. I had heard it was the finest method to learn a new language, so I took the plunge. Love it! I am well on my way to being tri-lingual. A true polyglot in the making thanks to Pimsleur France. Thank you.
