Customer Reviews

Imagine getting a tour guide for Liverpool and there being any mention of the Beatles? I'd already checked out the city's own site and stumbled across the ABBA museum. Even if you weren't a fan, you'd know that smorgasbord, Volvo and ABBA were Sweden's biggest exports. Not even a whisper about the musical museum in this book? #1 attraction of such a fabled city seeped in history is a children's park? Seriously? Aside from the DK now infamous Sidney fiasco, with its blind alleys, wrong streets and false free passes at museums info,, this is the worst of this particular line.

As always, DK has the best travel books. Top 10 is nothing short of efficient.

I love these books for traveling, they get to the point, allow me to plan my trips really well and are very accurate. I have been lucky that everywhere I have wanted to travel they have been available.

Another very good pocket travel guide book for Stockholm. This is one of the 2 guide books I will bring on my trip to Stockholm. Good Map.

Easy to find places of interest in Stockholm. Rates many of the "top" attractions in a city where you could spend a month checking out all the great things Stockholm has to offer. Suggest taking this book with you when you are out and about in Stockholm.

Seemed to be online with with most DK Travel Guides, with Not-To-Be-Missed Keypoints, Significant Historical and Popular Tourist Haunts.

great guides. I love this brand. so many pictures and details.

This is a great series of books we find very useful and traveling all over the world but especially if you just have a couple of days or less in any one destination
