Gertrude Chandler Warner was born in 1890 in Putnam, Connecticut, where she taught school and wrote The Boxcar Children because she had often imagined how delightful it would be to live in a caboose or freight car. Encouraged by the book's success, she went on to write eighteen more stories about the Alden children.

Kids love it

Seems like a good book, but it is not meant for K kids. It much for them to read and understand. I believe it it missed labeled in .

Loved the book. My daughter loved it. She loves basketball so this was the perfect book for her. She enjoyed it thoroughly.

Written by my 7 year old daughter:I love this basketball mystery! And I consider it a great one! YAHOO!!! great book!! This was an awesome, amazing book!!!

I like how mysterious The author wrote this book. I didn't want to put it down at all! I enjoyed this book a lot

I really enjoyed reading this book. It was interesting reading about some basketball stars and a stolen trophy. I would really rate it four and a half stars but I wasn't able to. The reason it "would" be four and a half stars is because every once and a while I got a tiny bit bored. I still love reading it because it has more than that. I loved reading about the basketball clinic. I LOVE this book!

I think this book is a wonderful book for anybody to read. If you like basketball and mystery this is the perfect book for you. You will not have nightmares from this book, and you will not be able to put it down.
