Freelance outdoor photographer and writer Stewart M. Green is the author of many FalconGuides, including five Scenic Driving titles and four climbing guides. He lives in Colorado Springs, Colorado.

BBB as in Big-Bathroom-Book. This is small, and the info is also minutia. The fold out maps are nice but lack tremendous detail, and the brief descripts leave you wanting more. Looks like something the Forest Service put together, so I'm disappointed with Falcon on this one. NO trail guide but lots of other park info: what's here is a brief overview and for that, acceptable. This series will be likely supplanted by an 'online' one, accessable via iphone, in which the 'links' or refs to other places of info will be just a jump away (ie where to stay when in Estes Park). In the book form it just always leave you wanting more. Pics are nice and does make you want to go there. Phone numbers I did call were up to date.
