Customer Reviews

Kindergarten-Grade 4-This book contains 20 projects, some of which could easily be made out of other materials. For example, there are instructions for a "Tic Tac Doh" game made from poster board and Play-Doh markers. Product-specific crafts include "Play-Doh on the Go," a decorated tin in which to carry small amounts of the modeling compound. Some of the items are permanent in nature and do not permit reusing the clay. The pages have plenty of white space, and the colorful pen-and-ink drawings help to make the steps clear. As with the author's Play-Doh Animal Fun (2002), Play-Doh Art Projects (2002), and Play-Doh Halloween (2003, all Millbrook), readers will find that the crafts are clever and fun.
