Customer Reviews

"Positive, thoughtful, and sympathetic treatment of a very wide range of faiths." Religious Education Press "A moving and illuminating book. I am aware of nothing on the market remotely comparable in scope, balance, readability, and sensitivity." The Church Times "A sumptuous handbook. Profusely illustrated in full colour ... a guide to the past and present faiths of the world." Times Educational Supplement --This text refers to an alternate Paperback edition.

Christopher Partridge is Professor of Religion at Lancaster University. His research and writing focus on new religions and alternative spiritualities in the West.

Great book on World Religions! It is easy to read and it has nice, colorful pages. Every chapter begins with a summary on the world religion. It covers the following religions: Indigenous Religions, Hinduism, Buddhism, Jainism, Chinese Religions, Korean & Japanese Religions, Judaism, Christianity, Islam, Sikhism, and Religions in Today's World. It is a high-quality volume, that is worth having close at hand.

Absolutely full of incredible information. Beautiful cover and photographs. Very academic language.

Required text for a university course. Very good book.

Even though this was a textbook that I had to purchase for class, I expected all of the entries to be completely objective in tone and words used, but many of the chapters could very clearly show that the writers were using personal inflections and persuasive speech. This is not appropriate for a book that is meant to educate individuals about the overview and important aspects of many religions.

came with a rather large dent in the front and back of the book in one of the corners.. not the happiest camper because it was supposed to be brand new interesting
