Customer Reviews

As an adult Protestant, I've loved this study Bible as a way to learn more about Catholicism. Not at all too juvenile. But I can see how it would have also been a great encouragement and study help when I was in middle/high school as well.

I purchased this for my 12 year old granddaughter who has such a keep interest in knowing about the Catholic Church and the different sacramentals, sacraments, and everything Catholic. She lives in a home where they don't go to church and when she stays with me, we go every Sunday and at least one weekday a week. She is hungry for the Lord. I used an earlier edition of the translation when I taught Confirmation in our small country parish and was impressed with the messages directed to the teenagers and young adults. This edition continues in those inspirational explanations and I was very delighted to see that when I received this. I pray that my granddaughter will love scriptures as much as I do through this gift and the gift of the Holy Spirit. Amen

Great bible. It is everything I needed and more!

Purchased for a friend who says she likes the historical information, as it gives context to the scripture.

Would have given 5 stars but it does not have footnotes

This is a great addition, I should have bought one for me!

Amazing for children/teenagers!

Excellent bible for high school, college students !
