Zaria's Gate

Synopsis

No one can escape their Reaping Day, a fact Zaria begrudgingly accepts as Death glides the suffocating helmet onto her sister's head. Zaria knows the promise of an afterlife is a lie. Her quest to expose the truth, however, is derailed when impossible dreams force her to reconsider everything she believes in – including reality itself. Enter the world of Zaria's Gate where the end is just the beginning, and reality is a matter of faith.

Customer Reviews

The story feels ancient and at the same time futuristic. It inspires the reader to think deeply about how we encounter and confront power and powerlessness, trust and mistrust, reality and the unreal in life. The heroine, Zaria, conquers each one in a unique world that feels so strange, yet so familiar. The pace is quick, the unfolding keeps you wondering, and the tale leaves you contemplating what gifts you have to give by being yourself.

I love the writing style! It's engaging, dark, compelling, emotional, personal and intelligent all at the same time. The concept is fresh, not the same old recycled storyline. I hope to see more from this author soon.

I just finished reading this and I really enjoyed it. Thank you.
