Flame Of Cytherea: Cytherean Chronicles Book 1

Synopsis

Justin is just a normal man. Eighteen years old. When he heard the woman's scream from the alley, he couldn't help but try and save her. It didn't go well, and now he finds himself in a strange new world with no idea of what is going on or even how he got there. He knows nothing about the people, customs, laws, rules of dating and absolutely nothing about magic...WARNING: This book contains explicit sexual content between a man and a few different women, but all separately. All sex scenes are MF only. This book also has a mostly reformed Greek Goddess, armies, magic, battles, a dark god, a virgin princess, a foul mouthed warrior woman, slavery, misogynists who meet a sticky end, kingdoms, and one overprotective father. No actual deer or rabbits were harmed in the making of this book.

Customer Reviews

I'm kind of shocked there isn't the whole group lesbian thing in this he seems to love but it works well with what is there. Very heavy on the plot in this 1 with the sex being more of a side story. It flows very well and the idea of free will and love all through the book is great. I'm looking forward to part 2.

I have come to expect good books from this author and he did not disappoint I thoroughly recommend read others of his work as well

Not much to say. I enjoyed the story and looking forward to the next one. I like the inner strength of the main character. Choosing not to fight but be support. His understanding of how differently things work on the new world and his ability to adopt their ways.

An OK plot, with OK story telling. Quite a number of grammar mistake - "your" instead of "you're", that sort of thing. It also ends rather abruptly, as if the author got sick of writing it about 2/3 of the way through.

Great story , most erotic novelist concentrate on pumping meat but this has both :)

I mean aqua man had a horrible power but come on this is on the level of the dick cannon super hero but us I'm not reading any further because what the literal he'll is he going to do rust out a mug I mean I see the point that this character is going to have a Vaner of manliness where as he is a bitch underneath
