Third graders love silly jokes and this handwriting practice book combines both while practicling their cursive handwriting.

This is a great cursive workbook if your child needs some extra help practicing their cursive writing skills. It helps my daughter's letter formations by following the "hollowed out" words before trying it out on her own. I've never seen this technique before, but it really works to give extra practice to the student who hasn't quite got all the letter formations mastered. It's great, fun practice that my daughter enjoys.

fun way to do it. tons of clean jokes. It's all good!

My son loves silly little jokes and hates writing. I bought this so he could keep up cursive over the summer and maybe it would be less painful if he was reading and writing jokes. It's going over well.

The jokes are funny and give my son motivation to practice his handwriting.

Very cute, keeps my son entertained while he does his writing. He is learning to read cursive while he learns to write it. Having the jokes helps Clean jokes kids love it I'm happy they get to practice cursive! Just enough for once practice daily.

Not teaching cursive in school nowadays. Got this for 3rd grade grand child and she really likes it.
