Goodbye Summer, Hello Autumn

Synopsis

As trees sway in the cool breeze, blue jays head south, and leaves change their colors, everyone knows--autumn is on its way! Join a young girl as she takes a walk through forest and town, greeting all the signs of the coming season. In a series of conversations with every flower and creature and gust of wind, she says good-bye to summer and welcomes autumn.

PreS-Gr 1—A girl wearing a red scarf greets a nippy late summer morning. The child wanders through woods, by a creek, and across farmland and finally arrives in town, encountering all sorts of flora and fauna along the way. She greets everyone in a friendly tone, saying hello to trees, blue jays, foxes, distant thunder, breezy wind, and the approaching chill in the air. In the end, returning home, it's "Goodbye, summer—Hello autumn!" Short sentences are positioned over the pictures. The spare text and muted watercolor illustrations blend perfectly to create a feeling of wonder at the change of seasons. This is an upbeat look at the promise of fall's glories. VERDICT A gentle, gorgeous welcome to summer's end and fall's beginning, perfect for storytime or one-on-one reading.—Anne Chapman Callaghan, Racine Public Library, WI

Kenard Pak has experienced changing seasons in his life as well. Starting out as a visual development artist with DreamWorks and Disney, Mr. Pak has also illustrated children's books such as Have You Heard the Nesting Bird? by Rita Gray and The Dinner That Cooked Itself by J. C. Hsyu. He now lives in San Francisco with his wife and their three cats.

A beautiful book. I love the illustrations and the story. But most of all I love the diverse characters in the book!

Very colorful book about the changing seasons. My five year old and 3 year old liked it. The artwork is very pretty and the story has a sort of fluid motion to it.

Very sweet story about the moods of the seasons. It's beautifully illustrated by one of my favorite illustrators Kenard Pak! His use of colors and textures helps to tell the beautiful story!

Got this to celebrate the change of season with out 4-year granddaughter. She enjoyed it, and loved taking her time with the illustrations to make sure she saw all the details.

Beautiful artwork! Very nice story for a preschool child. The artwork is what makes this book. Stunning!

Love books about fall, and this one is a keeper.

Beautiful!

Cute book. My 5 year old really likes it!
