“Dickson’s intention in writing this book is to “cut a path through the jungle” to each play, the major poetry, central critical works, the best editions, as well as to provide concise treatment of the chief biographical and historical questions. He has succeeded beautifully. This reviewer can’t imagine a better source to recommend to students.

The essential guide for all things Shakespeare. There's no better way to get quickly oriented when you're about to see, read, watch or star in a Shakespeare play. Break a leg!

This is a great book on Shakespeare -- and I have a whole bookcase of them :-). Very enjoyable and accessible -- and very up to date, with references and background that were new to me. I'm still enjoying it.
