Kenneth A. Strike is Professor Emeritus at Cornell University and Professor of Cultural Foundations of Education at Syracuse University. Jonas F. Soltis is William Heard Kilpatrick Professor Emeritus of Philosophy and Education at Teachers College, Columbia University.

I got this book as required for a class. Some of this book is hard to read and needs further interpretation, but for the most part they take a very dry topic and make it a touch more interesting.

Another book my granddaughter wanted and she was very pleased with it.

I Had to read this for my graduate course. At times, it's hard to follow, but ok I guess.

Got this for my masters class, great read!

I LOVE this book. It's the fifth edition and the best yet! It is thorough and thought provoking - my students love it and I continue to learn from it. Chapters range from intellectual freedom to equality to teacher professionalism. If you don't have this book I highly recommend it!

The page numbers are not listed on the kindle book and I am unable to cite my content properly. Sending an email to kindle on this issue and looking for a possible refund as I will need to reorder the book.

great product!

Affordable yet covered everything I needed. Very available and delivered quickly. Would definitely order again.
