Customer Reviews

Like much of the newer Star Wars comic books the story seems a little thin. But the characters flesh out well. The arc in this volume keeps your interest and sets up some interesting possibilities for the future.

As always the artwork for these comics is stellar. Not only is the artwork amazing the story is too.

The Rebel Jail is a great concept and a really fun story.

9/10. Some of the art is questionable, but I loved this book. Although in some places it seems to matter-of-fact that the heroes say things that are later found out. And I loved how the annual tied in. Will continue to read all Star Wars comics

After watching Rogue One this falls right in line with a few of the darker sides of the Rebellion. Absolutely loved it.

Not a waste of money, but not as good as the two previous arcs. Felt a little rushed, but still decent.

I love the new Marvel series. I can't wait for more Sequel Era and post ROTJ stories. Keep up the great work.
