Customer Reviews

(This book is now also published under the title 'An Island In Greece- on the shores of Skopelos, a ploy by the Publisher, I fear, to capitalize on the frenzy around the film, Mamma Mia.) I found this book in a far, dark corner of a tiny shop in Skiathos town, in the Greek Isles, covered with dust. The most precious find of any of my travels, it is a delightful peek into the people, backstreets, harbors and countryside of the very islands I was then enjoying my holiday on. Jon Carroll has brilliantly documented the time he and his wife spent in the Sporades, starting with his finding the islands on a journey on his beloved yacht.... sweet tales of the town-folk, the boat builders, the colorful characters who frequented the tavernas, the goatherds... the building of his home on Skopelos... all in all a luscious chronicle of the beautiful islands he obviously loves so well. I have since lost my copy of this book and am furiously trying to find a copy, which I will cherish forever. A WONDERFUL, heartwarming book.
