This book is an essential guide for anyone involved in the catechumenate. It breaks down the RCIA process into clear, practical and easy to follow steps. It gives RCIA team leaders and members great information to let them work with their pastor and liturgist and musicians to create dynamic meaningful ceremonies, as well as enable the RCIA team to work with the whole parish community. If you only bought one book to understand what the RCIA is wanting you to do, then this is the one.

The helpful thing about this book is that it focuses the team on why we are doing this, to bring people to a faith. It provides guidance, and is a really great "how-to" book. recommend Helpful for those who are involved in the RCIA process.

I am liturgist for our RCIA team and this little book has given me so many ideas for how to organize our rites. The rites need to be something that our candidates can appreciate and remember and this book will help it do exactly that!
