My Best Pop-up Space Book

Synopsis

Designed for toddlers ages 3-5, My Best Pop-Up Space Book is a child's first guide to the universe. Starting with a blast-off sound button featured on the cover and embedded on each spread throughout the book, youngsters will dive into the pages to find large pop-up surprises on every page. All key subjects are covered including Earth, the sun, the moon and stars, space travel, and astronauts, all with fun novelty elements including glittery stars and a full-page gatefold of the solar system. All text is age-appropriate to provide strong educational value, and photographs are clearly labeled and annotated, giving My Best Pop-Up Space Book a level of play and activity that holds the attention of younger readers.

Customer Reviews

Very nice book and the sound button is a hit! I would recommend it for even earlier age than advertised (3-5). It is a wonderful book to introduce toddlers to space and planets. The pop-ups are engaging and not too delicate for tiny hands.

Very helpful book, with to-the-point pop-up graphics. We enjoyed it very much with my 4yr old daughter. I am also surprised that she is that into space stuff. Shuttle noise gets a bit annoying, after 10 min of non-stop listening, but you have nothing to do :)

Very cute book. Perfect for my 4 year olds. They love it, the pop ups make it even more interesting to them.

My 2 1/2 year old grandson loves this book. He's all about astronauts and space and this book is perfect. He can now name all the planets in order from the sun.

This book seems a little dated in terms of scientific information.

This is such a cute book. My 4 year old loves it, and it is appropriately educational. He learned quite a bit, without it being overwhelming or too abstract. He had me read it to him a few times, and now he enjoys reading it on his own. I'd say age range for this book would be 3-5 years.

A great way to get kids interested in science and space!

It is a beautiful book... my kid loves to check it every time
